Introducing the MAR Live Learning Center (please check one)

For the first time ever, content is being recorded and will be accessible to you 24/7 via the online MAR LLC in Streaming Media Format or for Download - even to your MP3 player. The sessions will contain the audio fully synchronized to their PowerPoint's to provide you with a true multimedia recreation of the event. User notes, online handouts and the MP3 file for downloads are just some of the additional features. Now experience the MAR 2009 Conference long after you've left!

- Yes, I wish to receive the full MAR 2009 Conference recordings for only $99.00 to include the complete online recordings, synchronized to PowerPoint with online handouts and more! I have selected the registration package that includes this option.
- No, I do not wish to receive the full MAR 2009 Conference recordings
